Welcome

We're very thankful that you have joined us today! Today is the Lord's Day, the day our loving Father and Creator set aside at the beginning of every week to nourish and refresh us. He does this by gathering us together, speaking His love and grace to us in the reading and preaching of His Holy Word, the Bible. Through His Word, He feeds us and unites us to Himself in Jesus Christ, through His Holy Spirit and through the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

If you are here for the first time, we would like to get to know you, and give you the opportunity to get to know us. Please feel welcome to stick around and mingle with us after the worship service. One of our host families will gladly invite you over for lunch.

If you're interested in learning more about God, His Son Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, or anything else that is part of the Christian faith, please feel free to ask one of our Elders or Deacons for assistance. We are available and would be happy to help.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

17 Jane Petter

Life in the Congregation

A huge welcome to candidate Jeremy Segstro, who received traveling mercies and made the cross country trek this week, arriving in Surrey on Thursday evening. As suggested last week, it's going to be a busy time, and we wish you the Lord's grace and strength, both in getting acclimatized, as well as beginning preparations for classis examination. On the other hand, we say farewell to Will Dykstra, who's headed for the exact place Jeremy just left, Hamilton. He plans to attend Redeemer University College to play basketball, and perhaps study a little bit. Will, we pray the Lord keeps you in the hollow of His hand in this next step!

Looking at the birthday column to our left, we may note that Jane Petter gets the week all to herself. Happy Birthday Jane! We pray for the Lord's grace in the year to come, in particular as you deal with the problems you are having with your eyesight. Congratulations of a different order to grandparents Jerry and Ann Bysterveld, as well as great-grandmother Jane Bysterveld, as Garret and Melissa Bysterveld were blessed with a baby girl.

But life also brings trials, struggles, and sorrow. George and Amy Gunnink, and the rest of the family, were shocked to hear of a sharp downturn in the health of George's mother Joanne. Treatments have not had the desired effect, but instead seemed to have exacerbated her condition. Doctors have indicated that the time she has left could be measured in weeks, perhaps a few months. George and Amy are visiting his parents this weekend. We pray for the Lord's blessing on the time you are able to share together, and that He carries you, and all of the family, as you travel this difficult road together.

As we turn to the Lord today in worship and praise, we welcome Reverend Ben Berends to lead our worship this morning, and are thankful to have Jeremy Segstro do the same this afternoon.

A Blessed Sunday!

Home Visitation Theme

“Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.”

Hebrews 10:23

Do you have a prayer request?

Please let an elder or a deacon know if you have a prayer request or would like a visit. Let us know about joys and sorrows, challenges and milestones you would like us to remember in public prayer. Send prayer requests to prayer@cloverdalecanrc.org

Bible Studies

Semiahmoo Community Bible Study

As in years past, the Semiahmoo Bible Study continues each week, summer or winter. Our focus has been the study of the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5 to 7. Presently we are exploring the Lord’s Prayer. It is a small group, but a few new faces have shown up and encourage us to continue on. Publicly proclaiming the gospel to all who would like to hear it is a privilege that we can use in praising our Lord and Saviour. Vivian is a sister who has many challenges in her life, and our Bible study is the place where she gets to express her faith and dependence in the Lord. We would also like to urge the congregation to get involved in this outreach project. Especially in the summer it is difficult to find the bodies to run the program. Presently 2 of the regular leaders will be away for holidays, and the meeting really requires at least two people to be present. So please contact Henry or Zach if you have the time to attend one of our meetings. We meet every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 8:30 in the library’s meeting room.

Zion Park Manor Vespers

Date and Time: August 18, 2019 @ 330pm
EC Leader: Brenda Raap
Presenting Group: Young People’s Society
Accompanist: Tamara Van Dyke

A Request from the Staff at Zion Manor

Zion staff has requested that we enter and exit as a group, rather than have them open the door for a few people at a time. Please remember not to ring the doorbell until all / most of us are there, and afterwards, to wait by the door until a large group is ready to leave. Please remind your children of this as well.

From the Evangelism Committee

We are signed up for two more market days this year: August 24 and September 21. This is a great event with a really fun atmosphere and lots of interesting people to engage with! We have reading material including Bibles, brochures for our church and VBS flyers to hand out. Plus we get to hang out with other members of our church! What could be better!

Please sign up on the volunteer sheets in the library for any of the two dates. We need people to help with set up and take down, and there are 2 hour shifts starting at 10:00 (it goes until 3:00). Last time even with the rain we were able to meet and greet many people! Let's be a presence in our community!
