Welcome

We're very thankful that you have joined us today! Today is the Lord's Day, the day our loving Father and Creator set aside at the beginning of every week to nourish and refresh us. He does this by gathering us together, speaking His love and grace to us in the reading and preaching of His Holy Word, the Bible. Through His Word, He feeds us and unites us to Himself in Jesus Christ, through His Holy Spirit and through the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

If you are here for the first time, we would like to get to know you, and give you the opportunity to get to know us. Please feel welcome to stick around and mingle with us after the worship service. One of our host families will gladly invite you over for lunch.

If you're interested in learning more about God, His Son Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, or anything else that is part of the Christian faith, please feel free to ask one of our Elders or Deacons for assistance. We are available and would be happy to help.

Life in the Congregation

Our condolences go out to Lyn and Stan with the passing on to glory of Lyn's mother last weekend. Living to the age of 101 years is a rare blessing, but the passing still brings a lot of thoughts and emotions to the fore. May the Lord bring His comfort.

This column was written from a distance, but it's my understanding that Jeremy Segstro could move into his new home in Cloverdale this past week. We pray that it serves you well, brother, as a place both of residence and work! The calendar to our left suggests a number of celebrations. Congratulations to Aren and Mary, Kent and Belinda, and Adam and Cheryl on the occasion of your anniversaries. May the Lord gift you with what you need to continue in the vows you have made, to the glory of His Name.

Birthday wishes go out to our senior sister Gerie Kobes. The recent passing of an older brother perhaps brings more thoughts about the brevity of life on a day like this, along with the other emotions. We congratulate a younger sister, Tina Versluis, and an even younger brother, Levi Jubenvill, on the occasion of your birthdays as well. May the Lord bless and keep you in the year to come!

Elder Aren Van Dyke will lead us in worship this morning, and are thankful that Candidate Jeremy Segstro can do the same this afternoon.

A blessed day of worship, rest, and instruction in the Way!

Home Visitation Theme

“Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.”

Hebrews 10:23

Do you have a prayer request?

Please let an elder or a deacon know if you have a prayer request or would like a visit. Let us know about joys and sorrows, challenges and milestones you would like us to remember in public prayer. Send prayer requests to prayer@cloverdalecanrc.org

Bible Studies

Semiahmoo Community Bible Study

We continue to be blessed by the attendance of several individuals who join us from the community in our Bible Study. New faces give us the encouragement to continue our outreach in South Surrey and continue the public proclamation of the gospel of salvation. We were also blessed by the attendance of several members of our congregation. The meeting really requires at least two people to be present. So please contact Henry van den Hoven if you have the time to attend one of our meetings. You will experience how our God sends people our way. The results of course are in his hands. We meet every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 8:30 in the library's meeting room.

A Request from the Staff at Zion Manor

Zion staff has requested that we enter and exit as a group, rather than have them open the door for a few people at a time. Please remember not to ring the doorbell until all / most of us are there, and afterwards, to wait by the door until a large group is ready to leave. Please remind your children of this as well.

We are signed up for two more market days this year: August 24 and September 21. This is a great event with a really fun atmosphere and lots of interesting people to engage with! We have reading material including Bibles, brochures for our church and VBS flyers to hand out. Plus we get to hang out with other members of our church! What could be better!

Please sign up on the volunteer sheets in the library for any of the two dates. We need people to help with set up and take down, and there are 2 hour shifts starting at 10:00 (it goes until 3:00). Let's be a presence in our community!

Seniors – Save the Date!!!

We, the seniors fellowship group of Surrey Covenant Reformed Church, invite you to join us for our first meeting of the new season on Wednesday, September 18 as we host guest speaker Johanna Campbell. Mrs. Campbell will speak on the following theme: “Do not Forsake me When I am Old and Gray.” Johanna has written a book on Ps 71 as that psalm relates to aging. She will speak to issues such as: care giving and care receiving, loneliness in old age, and growing old as a Christian while continuing to testify of God’s goodness and greatness. She speaks from experience, having walked with her husband through his 8 year journey with CBD (corticobasal degeneration) until he entered into glory. The morning will begin at 10:00 am with refreshments and will be finished by 11:30-noon. Our address is 17400 60 Ave in Cloverdale. Please join us!

Sermon Questions

1. Why can’t we live our lives however we want? Aren’t we free in Christ?
2. Were the people breaking the first or the second commandment? Does it matter which they were breaking?
3. What is more important? Your “Sunday best” or your “Sunday heart”?

4. Why is it important to understand the wickedness of sin?

5. Compare Moses’ mediation to the Apostle Paul’s mediation, and finally to Jesus Christ’s mediation.
