Welcome

We're very thankful that you have joined us today! Today is the Lord's Day, the day our loving Father and Creator set aside at the beginning of every week to nourish and refresh us. He does this by gathering us together, speaking His love and grace to us in the reading and preaching of His Holy Word, the Bible. Through His Word, He feeds us and unites us to Himself in Jesus Christ, through His Holy Spirit and through the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

If you are here for the first time, we would like to get to know you, and give you the opportunity to get to know us. Please feel welcome to stick around and mingle with us after the worship service. One of our host families will gladly invite you over for lunch.

If you're interested in learning more about God, His Son Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, or anything else that is part of the Christian faith, please feel free to ask one of our Elders or Deacons for assistance. We are available and would be happy to help.

Life in the Congregation

We start this week's news with a special note of congratulations to Rachel and John Vandersluis. Tuesday the 9th marks their silver anniversary! We pray that they enjoy their day as they celebrate with family, and that the Lord continues to bless them with every gift from above as they continue their walk together.

We also extend a warm welcome to Brian 't Hart who comes to us from Down Under. He has accepted a teaching position at Trinity Western. We look forward to getting to know each other better and pray we may be a blessing to one another as well. We also look forward to meeting Candidate Jeremy Segstro next weekend for the first time. You will find the particulars of his visit elsewhere in our liturgy sheet.

On another travel note, the summer holiday season has started, and we pray for the safety of those that have the opportunity to get away, and for a relaxing and refreshing time.

Looking to our left at the birthday column, congratulations go out to Emily Grim and Janice Nincao who both celebrate today. Walking through the week, Niek Uwland gets to remember his first birthday as a Canadian resident, and Isabella Buron and Joshua Mohajan hope to blow out the candles as well.

Recognizing too, that life isn't always light and laughter, we also urge you to remember, include, and pray, for those who may have extra burdens to carry. We are aware of some of these stresses, but perhaps not all of them. It's an honor to support each other in any way we can!

We are thankful to have Rev. Dick Moes lead us in worship this morning, and look forward to having Student Daniel Shin serve in the same capacity this afternoon.

Home Visitation Theme

“Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.”

Hebrews 10:23

Do you have a prayer request?

Please let an elder or a deacon know if you have a prayer request or would like a visit. Let us know about joys and sorrows, challenges and milestones you would like us to remember in public prayer. Send prayer requests to prayer@cloverdalecanrc.org

Bible Studies

Semiahmoo Community Bible Study

Join us in the study of the Bible and learn with us as we travel through the mysteries of the gospel. No experience is required, only a curiosity about what the Bible tells us and how it should affect all of us.

If you do not have a Bible, we can supply you with one at no cost to you. In our discussion we encourage questions and other opinions and deal with each one respectfully.

We meet in the meeting room of the Semiahmoo Library on 152 Street and 18th Avenue every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 8:30pm.

Women's Society

In the Womens' Society 2019-2020 study year, we will be studying Romans.

The book we will use for the questions is entitled Romans - Light and Way by Ingrid Vandergaag.

The cost is approximately $6.50. Let Haidee know if you would like her to pick up a copy for you or purchase one yourself at Vanderheide Publishing. You will probably want to use an additional study guide/commentary along with the question book.

From the Evangelism Committee

We are signed up for three more market days this year: July 27, August 24, and September 21. This is a great event with a really fun atmosphere and lots of interesting people to engage with! We have reading material including Bibles, brochures for our church and VBS flyers to hand out. Plus we get to hang out with other members of our church! What could be better!

Please sign up on the volunteer sheets in the library for any of the three dates. We need people to help with set up and take down, and there are 2 hour shifts starting at 10:00 (it goes until 3:00). Last time even with the rain we were able to meet and greet many people! Let's be a presence in our community!
