Welcome

We're very thankful that you have joined us today! Today is the Lord's Day, the day our loving Father and Creator set aside at the beginning of every week to nourish and refresh us. He does this by gathering us together, speaking His love and grace to us in the reading and preaching of His Holy Word, the Bible. Through His Word, He feeds us and unites us to Himself in Jesus Christ, through His Holy Spirit and through the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

If you are here for the first time, we would like to get to know you, and give you the opportunity to get to know us. Please feel welcome to stick around and mingle with us after the worship service. One of our host families will gladly invite you over for lunch.

If you're interested in learning more about God, His Son Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, or anything else that is part of the Christian faith, please feel free to ask one of our Elders or Deacons for assistance. We are available and would be happy to help.

Life in the Congregation

We open today's column with a warm welcome to Candidate Jeremy Segstro, who arrived yesterday morning and will be visiting with us till Friday. We pray for the Lord's Blessing on your time here, and that this initial visit helps crystallize your response to the call that we extended to you. Elsewhere in the Liturgy Sheet you will find the particulars of his visit.

We congratulate Rick and Nora VanOene with their anniversary that they hope to celebrate later this week. A time to remember the Lord's goodness! In our Birthday notes we could mention that Haidee Voorhorst made husband Henry wait to celebrate his 60th birthday until she could do the same. Apparently they had lots of family support in remembering the occasion! Of our (slightly more) senior members, Mary Van Dyke hopes to remember her special day this Thursday, and Art Grim on Friday. Going in reverse order, we may also congratulate Melanie Vandeburgt, James Vandersluis, Nehemiah Shei and Kendall Dykstra with their birthdays.

Perhaps a reminder to all of us to also remember our seniors during the summer months. A visit or call can serve to shorten what sometimes can be a long day.

We look forward to seeing Jeremy Segstro on the pulpit today, and wish all a blessed day of worship and rest.

Home Visitation Theme

"Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful."

Hebrews 10:23

Do you have a prayer request?

Please let an elder or a deacon know if you have a prayer request or would like a visit. Let us know about joys and sorrows, challenges and milestones you would like us to remember in public prayer. Send prayer requests to prayer@cloverdalecanrc.org

Bible Studies

Semiahmoo Community Bible Study

Join us in the study of the Bible and learn with us as we travel through the mysteries of the gospel. No experience is required, only a curiosity about what the Bible tells us and how it should affect all of us.

If you do not have a Bible, we can supply you with one at no cost to you. In our discussion we encourage questions and other opinions and deal with each one respectfully.

We meet in the meeting room of the Semiahmoo Library on 152 Street and 18th Avenue every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 8:30pm.

Women's Society

In the Womens' Society 2019-2020 study year, we will be studying Romans.

The book we will use for the questions is entitled Romans - Light and Way by Ingrid Vandergaag.

The cost is approximately $6.50. Let Haidee know if you would like her to pick up a copy for you or purchase one yourself at Vanderheide Publishing. You will probably want to use an additional study guide/commentary along with the question book.
