Welcome

We're very thankful that you have joined us today! Today is the Lord's Day, the day our loving Father and Creator set aside at the beginning of every week to nourish and refresh us. He does this by gathering us together, speaking His love and grace to us in the reading and preaching of His Holy Word, the Bible. Through His Word, He feeds us and unites us to Himself in Jesus Christ, through His Holy Spirit and through the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

If you are here for the first time, we would like to get to know you, and give you the opportunity to get to know us. Please feel welcome to stick around and mingle with us after the worship service. One of our host families will gladly invite you over for lunch.

If you're interested in learning more about God, His Son Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, or anything else that is part of the Christian faith, please feel free to ask one of our Elders or Deacons for assistance. We are available and would be happy to help.

Life in the Congregation

Our story this week begins with a mixture of sadness and joy. With sadness we note the passing of one of our former members: a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother to many. Sr. Betty Schouten has passed away at the age of 90. She was the mother of seven boys and one girl, including former members Peter Schouten, and Rev. Rob Schouten. We extend our condolences to them, but more directly to Adam and Cheryl Van den Hoven and their children; to Doug and Colleen Schouten and their children. We offer condolences to all other family members in Willoughby, Langley, Aldergrove, and Ontario who are grieving this loss. At the same time, we can remember sr. Schouten with love because she always had a kind word to say. We can also be joyful and thankful knowing that she is now in heaven praising her Saviour and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Secondly, we have learned that young Jacob Bredenhof, the great-grandson of Mrs. Sylvia Bredenhof and Mrs. Jo Ostermeier, has been found to be completely clear of cancer. All the tests have come back negative for cancer cells. This is cause for great relief, thankfulness, and joy. Sr. Tracey Bredenhof said it best: "Praise God from whom all blessings flow!" We continue to pray for Jacob, his parents, and his brothers, asking that the Lord will bless all the rehabilitation work that still has to be done and grant a return to a more normal life for the whole family.

Also, we note that sr. Rita DeBoer, (Belinda Dykstra's mom) has been able to return home from the hospital. She has undergone some tests, the medications have been changed, but so far, no surgery has taken place. Our prayer is that all may be well, and that she may have patience in this trial.

We can congratulate br. and sr. Joe and Els LeGault on their wedding anniversary, which will take place on June 1st. Congratulations, Joe and Els! May you continue to love each other and to be a blessing to both family and community for decades to come. May the Lord bless you with a memorable and thankful day.

We congratulate one of our younger members, Clara Schouten, for her birthday today, on May 26th. May the Lord bless you with a happy 6th birthday! We also say Happy Birthday to br. Kent Dykstra for his birthday which is coming up on May 30th. May the Lord grant contentment, enjoyment of life, and thankfulness as you celebrate another year. May He also continue to equip you with all you need for your work at home, at school, and in the church.

Please remember to participate in the election of office bearers after the morning worship service. Let us keep in mind that “those the church chooses as its office-bearers are appointed by Jesus Christ himself to represent him.” That makes every election important and it makes your role as a voting church member very important.

We welcome Rev. Jack Visscher, the Emeritus Pastor of Langley Canadian Reformed Church, to lead our worship services today. May the Lord so bless the preaching of the Word and our worship, that we are spiritually united in lifting our voices to the praise of His Holy Name!

Home Visitation Theme

“Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.”

Hebrews 10:23

Do you have a prayer request?

Please let an elder or a deacon know if you have a prayer request or would like a visit. Let us know about joys and sorrows, challenges and milestones you would like us to remember in public prayer. Send prayer requests to prayer@cloverdalecanrc.org

Bible Studies

Semiahmoo Community Bible Study

Join us in the study of the Bible and learn with us as we travel through the mysteries of the gospel. No experience is required, only a curiosity about what the Bible tells us and how it should affect all of us.

If you do not have a Bible, we can supply you with one at no cost to you. In our discussion we encourage questions and other opinions and deal with each one respectfully.

We meet in the meeting room of the Semiahmoo Library on 152 Street and 18th Avenue every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 8:30pm.
