Welcome

We're very thankful that you have joined us today! Today is the Lord's Day, the day our loving Father and Creator set aside at the beginning of every week to nourish and refresh us. He does this by gathering us together, speaking His love and grace to us in the reading and preaching of His Holy Word, the Bible. Through His Word, He feeds us and unites us to Himself in Jesus Christ, through His Holy Spirit and through the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

If you are here for the first time, we would like to get to know you, and give you the opportunity to get to know us. Please feel welcome to stick around and mingle with us after the worship service. One of our host families will gladly invite you over for lunch.

If you're interested in learning more about God, His Son Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, or anything else that is part of the Christian faith, please feel free to ask one of our Elders or Deacons for assistance. We are available and would be happy to help.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Life in the Congregation

We rejoice and give thanks, together with Jeremy Segstro, on the successful completion of his Classis examination this past Tuesday. It was the better part of six hours under a microscope, but the positive result announced by the Classis Chairman, Rev. Vandeburgt, touched off a round of smiles and congratulations. We look forward now to Jeremy's ordination, to take place, D.V., the morning of October 20th, and of course him then putting on the mantle of our pastor, with its accompanying responsibilities.

On another exciting note, we also give thanks together with Lucas and Janice Nincao on the birth of son Philip Marcus the previous Saturday. I'm pretty sure grandparents Henk and Rita Visscher were okay with the news too! We look forward to the baptism, with its promises, as well.

The rejoicing and thanks is to an extent tempered by trials. We again pray for healing for our elderly sisters Jane Petter and Sylvia Bredenhof, looking to recover from their bad falls. And the brothers and sisters among us dealing with chronic physical, emotional, and mental issues covet our prayers as well. May these struggles though also serve as reminders to live and walk with our eyes on our Saviour and Lord. Our condolences go out to Shelley Schoen and Stan Leyenhorst with the passing of Anne Leyenhorst of Vernon this past Monday. She was grandmother to Shelley and an aunt to Stan.

As the federal election campaigns march on, pray too for the members of our neighbouring congregations who are candidates, as well as their supporting volunteers, that our Christian witness may yet be a leaven and a salt in the governance of our country.

Our congregation has been approached by Manoah Manor to lead a devotional along with some singing this Sunday evening at 7:30. If you have the opportunity, please join in.

Our calendar tells us that Ann and Jerry Bysterveld may remember their anniversary this Thursday. Another reason for thankfulness! Congratulations to Lucas Nincao who celebrates his birthday the same day, and to our senior sister Lucy Mulder who turns the page on another year on Saturday.

Brother Henry Voorhorst has volunteered to lead our worship this morning, and we thank Rev. Jason Vanderhorst for being willing to conduct this afternoon's service.

Wishing a blessed day of rest and worship of our merciful God.

Home Visitation Theme

"Worship the LORD in the splendour of holiness; tremble before him, all the earth!"
Psalm 96:9

Do you have a prayer request?

Please let an elder or a deacon know if you have a prayer request or would like a visit. Let us know about joys and sorrows, challenges and milestones you would like us to remember in public prayer. Send prayer requests to prayer@cloverdalecanrc.org

Semiahmoo Community Bible Study

We continue to be blessed by the attendance of several individuals who join us from the community in our Bible Study. New faces give us the encouragement to continue our outreach in South Surrey and continue the public proclamation of the gospel of salvation. We were also blessed by the attendance of several members of our congregation. The meeting really requires at least two people to be present. So please contact Henry van den Hoven if you have the time to attend one of our meetings. You will experience how our God sends people our way. The results of course are in his hands. We meet every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 8:30 in the library's meeting room.

Canadian Reformed World Relief Fund (CRWRF) Thanksgiving Collection

"Let us not become weary in doing good for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers." Galatians 6: 9-10

This year, CRWRF has designated the Thanksgiving Collection - Education Assistance.

Millions of children around the globe do not have access to education due to family situations (i.e. single parent or orphans) or poverty. The statistics are staggering (United Nations reports state over 57 million) on how many children under the age of 11 who have to drop out of school because they can no longer afford to attend, live in conflict areas or have to go to work to support family. CRWRF recently became aware of situations just like this with some of our sponsor children/families in Kenya and realized it was time to take action. The funds collected in the 2019 Thanksgiving Collection will be set aside for those children needing financial assistance to complete their high school education. Attending high school allows for better job and life opportunities.

The Thanksgiving service's collection will be for this cause. Any checks should be clearly marked "Thanksgiving 2019 - Education Assistance" so that it can be appropriately allocated. You can also mail cheques to:
